

Demographic Transition Model

Phase 1

1. What is happening to the total population?
2. Describe the birth and death rates.

Phase 2

3. What is happening to the total population?
4. Describe the birth and death rates.
5. What is the precipitating factor for the population change?

Phase 3

6. What is happening to the total population?
7. Describe the birth and death rates.
8. What is the precipitating factor for the population change?

Phase 4

9. What is happening to the total population?
10. Describe the birth and death rates.
11. Using the DTM, what are high and low birth rates?