

Key Question #2: Why do boundaries cause problems? [264-274]

Name: _____

1. What is a boundary? 1.

2. Draw and describe the following shapes of states and provide an example of each along with advantages and disadvantages (if applies):

a. Compact: 2a.

b. Prorupted: 2b.

c. Elongated: 2c.

d. Fragmented: 2d.

e. Perforated: 2e.

f. Define Landlocked: 2f.

3. Describe Zimbabwe's problem. 3.

4. What is the difference between a frontier and a boundary? 4.

5. List the three main types of physical boundaries. 5a.
For each, provide an example and identify a potential problem (if applicable).

5b.

5c.

6. List and give examples of the three main types of cultural boundaries. 6a.

6b.

6c.

7. Why is there a UN patrolled buffer zone (boundary) in Cyprus? 7.

8. Define unitary state. Give a strength and weakness using France as an example.

8a. (define)

8b. (strength)

8c. (weakness)

9. Define federal state. Give a strength and weakness using Poland as an example.

9a. (define)

9b. (strength)

9c. (weakness)

10. Define gerrymandering.

10.

11. Name and describe the three types of gerrymandering.

11a.

11b.

11c.